Pastor Carl Cheshier

Our pastor's death was a great loss for our church family. He was so many things to us, a great shepherd, humble and kind servant, and such a hard worker for God's Kingdom. We all miss him so much!

Brother Carl's adopted son, Pastor Ronnie Brown has stepped in as interim pastor. We are so thankful to him and his wife for the sacrifice they are making to make the drive back and forth from their home in Conway, Arkansas, each week.

He is doing a wonderful job of bringing us the message of our Lord and comforting our hurting church family.

We also pray for him, as we know this is a hard time for him and his family, as he is grieving the loss of his father, Brother Carl.

Please keep Sister Virginia and all the Cheshier family in your prayers.

From My Heart

Ricki McCallum

January is the first month of the year, just like a Monday being the first day of the work week. When I had my real estate offices going, I was always excited about the new week. What opportunities would come our way? Were there new people in town for the weekend driving around looking for a possible new home? Would they be calling our office first thing Monday morning?

The excitement was there every start of the week. Yes, the phones were ringing and people coming through the door. I made sure my agents and I were up to the task of serving our clients. We were wide awake, dressed for business, energetic, optimistic, and ready to be of service.

The same preparation and ideas for service need to be practiced in our church. Yes, people are looking for a good church today. Maybe, more than ever before. Many realize the troubles our nation is having without strong moral and spiritual leadership in the home, the school, the workplace and even in our churches.

Christians are called to be of service. First, we are to share the gospel of Jesus Christ, win people to the Lord. We are to help them understand baptism, and teach them the ways of the Lord. How many get saved and then quickly disappear from church? How many never make it that far? Yes, you and I have a mission. We are to reach the lost and dying world with the good news. Then, train the new disciples. We each have a part in this, not just the pastor or the Sunday school teachers.

I Corinthians 12: 14-20

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

Like Bro. Carl said in a recent newsletter, people read our lives. How we live and how we respond to life's challenges is a book for the unbeliever. Let others see Jesus in you. Put God first in your life. You will be happier and others will be asking where your joy comes from. What a perfect way to open a conversation about God. Look for the opportunities to talk about our Savior. Let us win many to the Lord in 2023. It is a new beginning, a new chance.

John 9:4

"I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work."

Sister Ricki and her husband Denny were involved in a terrible automobile accident several weeks ago and she was badly injured. They are both very special to our church. Please continue to lift them up in prayer for total healing!

Progress update on the new sanctuary

We are so thankful to all the men and women that have worked so hard on our new building, it is beautiful. They are putting the finishing touches on it and will be setting up the new sound system. We will be having services in it very soon!

Building Fund

Just a reminder to keep your commitments on the building fund. We are working so hard to be debt free when it is completed. We have come this far, so let's all do our part to finish paying it off! God will bless us for our giving.

Let's also invite new people to fill the sanctuary!

Workdays Schedule

Every Saturday starting at 8:30. All help is greatly appreciated!

River Valley Association Meeting

This meeting is scheduled to be held at Cornerstone FWB in September.

We will be happy to have this meeting in our new sanctuary to show them what our pastor, Brother Carl was so excited about!

Please remember to invite neighbors, friends and family to come worship with us for Easter Sunday service.

Easter Sunday is one of the highest church attendances of the entire year. This is a great time to get people in God's house to hear the message of our Risen Savior!

We will be having an Easter Egg hunt on Saturday, April 8th 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm at the church. If you can donate, please bring: plastic eggs, candy, quarters and dollar bills.
